

I sing because

I sing because
it gives my life
verbs and verses.

Started singing in the middle years,
not sprung so much from god head or hip, but from

Luck and a barrel-chested father, who sang and then stopped.
Listen, when the gift goes, you'll know.

— Paul Turner (July 1, 2003)