

A response to Reverend Terasa Cooley's mindful sermon "At the Will of the Future"

We live in our various tasks, our low- and mid-fidelity wishes and prototypes.

We live in our heads and find happiness in our two-nesses.

We live in the moment.

Or, sleep.

> Paul Turner, 2007